THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scour robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

The note of satisfaction dominates the grace note of encomium in the Brunswick's farewell to the Erstwhile Argus Editor and his family. Did the Brunswicker wont exhibit ennui until the recent inspiration to hustle which seized it has been forgot.

Forethought

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.

Daniel Webster in 1850

"I shall know but one country. The ends I aim at shall be my country's, my Gods and Truth's." "I was born an American; I live an American; I shall die an American; and I intend to perform the duties incumbent upon me in that character to the end of my career."

"I mean to do this with absolute disregard of personal consequences. What are personal consequences? What is the individual man, with all the good or evil which may befall a great country in a crisis and in midst of each transaction which concerns that country's fate. Let the consequence be what they will, I am careless."

"No man can suffer too much, and no man can fall too soon, if he suffers or if he falls in defense of the liberties and Constitution of this country."

Salisbury 14 Carrollton 0

Fans were given a jolt Sunday at Salisbury when Carrollton put in a bunch of stiff such as have not appeared on other than burial grounds in the state. Nothing can be said of the game which would be of interest to the reader who was not on the ground Sunday except that whenever Carrollton is named as a contestant on the diamond anywhere hereafter, the entrance fee should be kept safely in pocket and the lover of the great American sport take himself off with pole and line or sit in the shade and count his fingers for better entertainment.

Mrs. Jim Lee Thrash and daughter were Salisbury visitors last week.

MACON

The postoffice safe, at New Cambria was blown some time last Friday night and $167.50 in stamps and cash was taken. No clue has been obtained as to the thief. Nitroglycerine was evidently used in blowing the safe.

HER DEATH NEAR

So Everyone Thought, But Is Now Well And Stronger Than Ever.

Newton, Mo.—"I can certainly speak a good word for Cardui, the woman's tonic," says Mrs. Jay Rhoades, of this town. "I suffered for 12 years with my right side, and the last three years, I would have a bad spell with it about every three months. I would get so bad off, every one would think I could not live."

The first of July, I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I haven't had a bad spell since soon after I began taking it. Before taking Cardui, I was so irregular, and, at times, I could hardly stand on my feet. Now, I can clean house, and do any kind of work without its hurting me in the least. Cardui will surely do for other women, what it did for me. I am telling all my neighbors about it."

Cardui is a mild and effective tonic for women, that has been found, by actual use, during more than 60 years, to relieve the ailments to which all women are peculiarly liable. Cardui has helped thousands. Why not you? Try it. NCS
